The surprise of the day was the work of Leo Lawler of the Mohawk A. C. of Flushing, who node a game run. Two packs were started, the fast one giving the "slow" four minutes leaway. Samuel J. Tuomey of the Stars finished first after a hot run with Lawler of the slow pack. The other men in this pack were:

as follows:
John E. Fleming, Henry A. Ryan, L. Ottler, Charles J. Egbert, Samuel R. Bennett and William J. Ryan.
Time, 53 minutes 52 seconds.
From the club grounds at Maspeth the Brooklyn A. C. held a well-contested run.
The course was about seven miles long. The men came home in the following order:

C. J. Kenney, Bernard W. Dudley, John C. Doyle, Herman Classen, John McVarthy, M. J. Killum, and J. J. Donnelly, Time, 51 minutes 45 seconds. The Pastime A. ### WANTED TO SCARE HIS WIFE. So Dunn Drauk Just a Little From the Carbolic Acid Bottle.

Policeman Henderson was called into the house at 584 Eleventh avenue on Saturday night and found Alexander Dunn suffering apparently from the effects of carbolic acid Duna was sent to the hospital and ye-terday was arraigned in the West Side court. He said he hadn't attempted suicide but had swallowed only a little of the acid in order to frighten his wife. He promised not to do it again.

The next time you mustn't frighten her without cause " said Magistrate Pool.

Dunn was then discharged. port the result under eath to the Superin-ie.dent of Banks. He also recommends

SIR: In response to your request I have the honor to report that rables has become epidemic among dogs in the city of Rochester. Between about June 1 and the present date I have seen somewhere between twenty-five and fifty dogs with unmistakable evidences of rables. A number of these dogs have proved rabid by inoculating other animals, chiefly rabbits. And in four cases unexpected, but because the teams have for the work of this department has been corroborated by Prof. V. A. Moore of Cornell University and by M. B. ### LITTLE GIRLS ACCUSE LORITO. Several Identify Him in Court as the Man Who Assaulted Them.

James Lorito of 385 Cherry street, who was arrested several days ago charged with assaulting very young girls, was arraigned again yesterday in the Essax Market police court. In the court room were the parents of many children who have been brutally assaulted by a man answering Lorito's description. When Lorito was first arraigned Magistrate Crane was about to discharge him for lack of evidence, but postponed the case at the earnest request of Agent Pisarra of the Gerry society. On that occasion Lorito denied that he had ever been arrested before, but Agent Pisarra subsequently learned that Lorito was a prisoner once before on a similar charge;

fore on a similar charge;

Lorito was taken into the reporters' room in the Essex Market police court yesterday and placed in line with a dozen men. Several children less than 6 years old who had been assaulted picked Lorito out as their assailant. Lorito will be arraigned again to-day. Agent Pisatra said to a StN reporter yesterday; "We have a strong circumstantial case against Lorito. On Oct 24. Mollic Gordon, 5 years old, of 46 Enigers street, was asked, with a number of little children, to go into the saloon at 50 Enigers street by a man she identifies as Lorito, to listen to a phonograph. The machine got out of order and, according to her story. Lorito asked her to go with him to his house where he had a phonograph. She went along and about an hour later was found in Rutgers street. She was so badly injured that it was necessary to send her to Gonverneur Hospital. When asked who assaulted her she said it was the man who played the phonograph in the saloon. Her ten-year-old brother saw Lorito last week on the street and remembered him as the man who asked the girl to go into the saloon and notified Detective Haves and Delaney of the Madison street station. They agreeded Lorito, who denied knowing anything about a phonograph or being in the saloon. We went to his house and found a phonograph there as described by the girl and Lorito since then has been identified by the saloon keeper and the bartender." No arrest in recent years has caused so much excitement on the lower East Side as that of Lorito and it required all the efforts of the court policement to prevent a demonstration against him yesterday in the police court. Lorito was taken into the reporters'

One of His Staff Says Paris Isn't Fussing Over

the End of the Century. M. Jules Cambon, the French Ambassador to the United States, arrived here yester-day by La Gasoogne. With him was M. Louis Hermite, who has been in the French diplomatic service two years and who comes here to take the place of M. Taigny as second Secretary of Legation. This is M. Hermite's first assignment abroad and he is much pleased that his Government sent him to the United States

M. Cambon was met at the pier by Lieut De Faramond, Naval Attache of the French

De Faramond, Naval Attache of the French Embassy. Henry Maillard, Henry Gourd, President of the French Chamber of Commerce, and by the agent of the French Line. When the newspaper men sought to interview the Ambasader, he said.

Ah, I would be delighted to say something, but what can I say? I have been away from the United States since July and have been on the cocan eight days. Maybe I would have much to say if I knew what has been going on. Then, again, maybe I wouldn't. At any rate, I must want until I get to Washington and look over the Embassy."

M. Herbeite said that the Lett that the world was going to move into a new century pretty soon hadn't made much of an impression on Paris and that, up to the time he left, neither the municipality nor individuals were making any special preparations to celebrate the event. M. Cambon and M. Hermite will leave for Washington at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
